How 'Sweet' it is!

by ROGER RUTHHART

What was the margin of difference? To Sequoit Coach Roger Andrews, the difference between his Sequoits advancing to the state's elite Sweet Sixteen and Woodstock or Rockford advancing, was the support from the community.

"The town is wild and I'll tell you, it helps the kids— any team," said Andrews, in ecstasy after Friday night's sectional victory over Woodstock.

"The people here really help drive these guys; help keep them going," he added.

"Rockford West came in (the opening sectional game) and saw that we had twice as many people as they did. To think that a town like Antioch could outdraw them by that margin, I think I think it kind of awed Rockford West."

Antioch's supporters put on their best display of group hysteria Friday night as the Sequoits swept past Woodstock 41-35 to advance to the super sectionals Tuesday night, 7:30 p.m., at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, against Palatine.

Palatine advanced by winning the Palatine Sectional, defeating Crown of Carpentersville 49-46. Crown defeated Antioch early this season by seven points. The Sequoits (22-5) have not faced Palatine (21-8) this season.

Friday's first half was tentative on the part players on both teams, but a last minute surge gave Antioch an 18-17 lead with 1:08 left in the half when Dee Maras hit a 10 foot jumper. John Ploss extended the margin to 20-17 laying in a short jumper before Jerry DeWane hit with four second remaining for the Blue Streaks from Woodstock, leaving the score 20-19 at half.

The Sequoit's first half exploits could have left them in a serious hole as Woodstock went to the free throw line 10 times in the opening half compared to one for Antioch.

The five points that Woodstock did pick up at the line were more than offset by their nine turnovers compared to Antioch's four in the opening stanza.

But it was Antioch's second half play that left the crowd buzzing. After Woodstock scored the first bucket of the half to go up 21-20, Antioch reeled off 10 unanswered points on two outside shots by Pete Weber, two baskets by Ploss and another by Maras. The surge gave Antioch a 30-21 lead.

While Woodstock had advanced by upsetting Rockford East with a run and gun offense, Friday's game was played in the deliberate, well-planned and executed style that has marked the Sequoits success this season.

There was no doubt that Antioch was in control, even while Woodstock was cutting the margin with seven straight points.

In the fourth quarter, Woodstock tied the game at 30-30, but a bank shot from Maras, followed by a jumper from Tim Koesser gave Antioch a lead they would never relinquish.

In the end, Antioch again lived and died by defense. "Our defense has been strong all year, but our offense tends to get bogged down at times," said Andrews. He pointed out that the difference between the title game Friday night and the first meeting between Antioch and Woodstock was that this time around, Antioch was unable to put the game away.

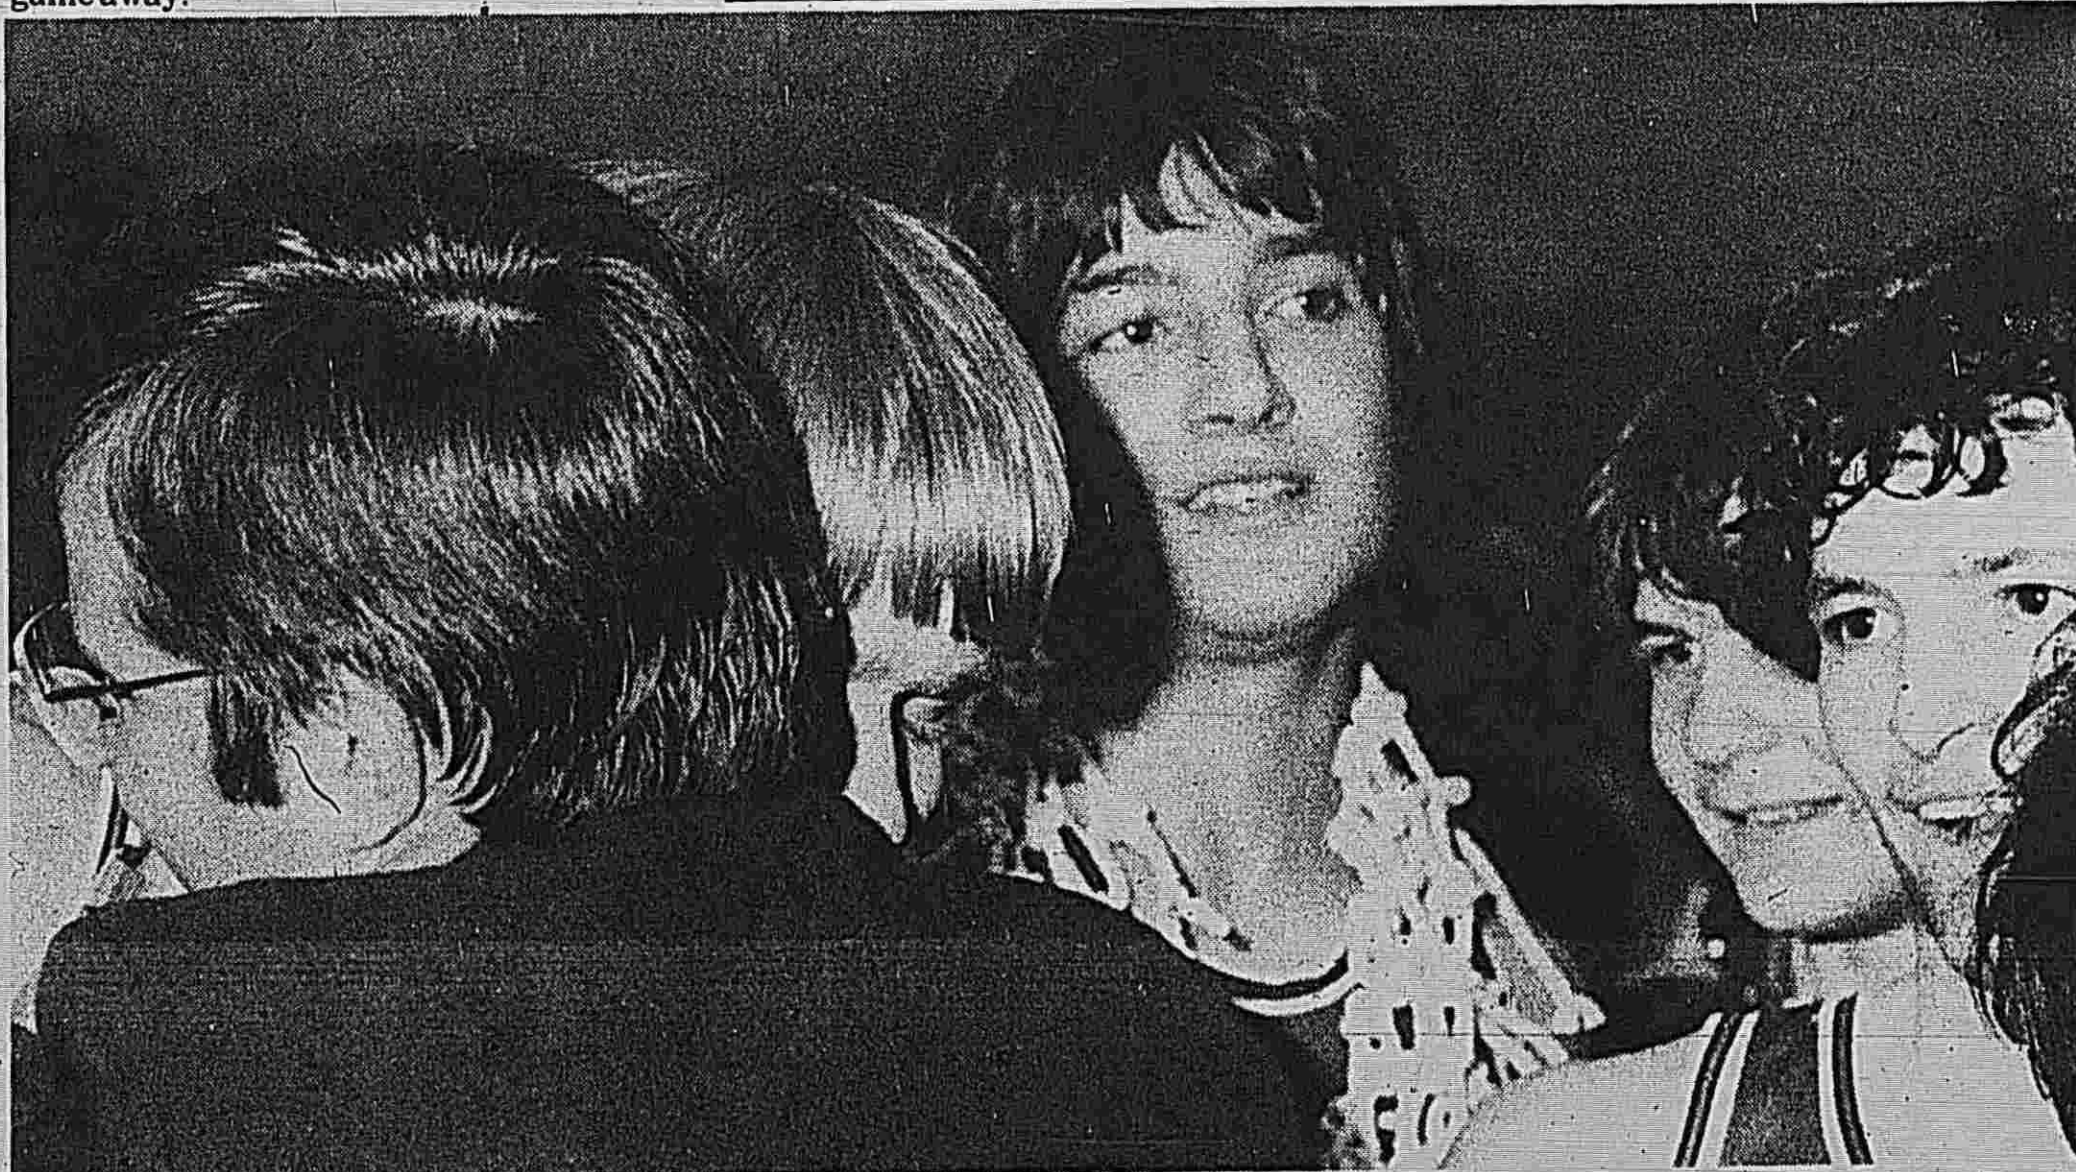

"Last time, we got a nine point lead and built on it. Tonight we couldn't get going again. They are a much improved team, especially their big kid, Chuck Lundstrom."

Ploss was again the anchor of Antioch's defense, pulling down nine rebounds to go with his 15 points and five of six free-throw attempts. Maras added 14 points and 15 rebounds and Pete Weber, Tim Koesser and Dean Haviland, contributed four points each, as well as excellent defense and ball control. Marshall Olson also saw action for the Sequoits.

"This is a coach's dream," said Andrews after the game, still grinning from ear to ear and stopping to talk with any Antioch fan who wanted to. "Every coach dreams of a Sweet Sixteen team. That's been my dream for the 27 years I've been coaching."

Super Sectional coverage and Antioch's Elite Eight pairing in this week's Antioch Reporter on newsstands Wednesday.

THEY'RE HEADED DOWNSTATE—Sequit basketball coach Roger Andrews hugs his players following Friday night victory over Woodstock, giving them sectional title and advancing them to Sweet Sixteen competition, Tuesday night at

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: MARCH 19, 1931

William J. Rooney, well-known resident here, and president of the Chain O'Lakes Laundry & Dry Cleaning Company, early today fell a victim to Chicago gangsters and racketeers who escaped in a car, leaving the body of Rooney riddled from shotgun fire. Two years ago Rooney was the United States representative of American labor at the international convention in London.

Wesley Blunt, last Antioch survivor of his company in the Civil War, passed away February 16. He was born in 1842 and moved with his family to a farm near Fox Lake in 1849. At the commencement of the Civil War, Wesley enlisted for three years and was honorably discharged at the expiration of his enlistment with the other residents of Antioch. They were Levi J. Simons, Warren Williams, Joseph Haycock, Charles Pullen, Peter Strang, Henry Soules, Charles Hall, William Galiger, Corydon Maltby, Arthur Moulton, Gallio Fairman, Edison Howard, James Marsh, Collins McBlond and Ham Ringard.

Principal L.O. Bright of the Antioch Township High School and his household are in quarantine this week following the discovery that Miss Alma Grulick, who lives at the Bright home, has scarlet fever. Dr. H.F. Beebe, health officer, ordered an immediate quarantine to the family and Miss Grulick was taken to Lake County Hospital.

First prize of $15, offered by the Whitmore Chevrolet Company in a unique contest for selecting the ten most important reasons why "it is wise to choose the new bigger and better Chevrolet 6," was awarded to Kenneth Mortensen. James Durin won second prize and runners-up were A.C. Atwell, Lloyd Atwell and George Dunlap.

Lester "Jimmy" Osmond is ill this week with the mumps.

If the more the merrier makes an affair a success, then the St. Patrick card party and dance sponsored by the dramatic club of St. Peter's Church was a success, as over 250 were present. The $5 gold piece as door prize was won by Arnold Buschman and the genuine pearl necklace was won by Alice Nelson.

30 YEARS AGO: MARCH 15, 1951

The old Lundeen mansion, Rte. 59, in Lake Villa Townsh was completely destroyed by a fire of unknown origin Tuesday morning. A snow storm hampered the efforts of fire fighters. The building was valued at $50,000 and the furnishings at $10,000.

Out of the dormant Gresengine Co. has grown a new industry for Antioch, the Northern Illinois Manufacturing Co. situated in the basement of the Antioch Garage on Main St. The new company, now employing six men, is doing subcontracting work in defense materials.

Harold Gaston composing room employee of the Antioch News is suffering from badly burned hands as the result of a gasoline explosion and fire at the newspaper plant last Monday evening. The fire occurred while Harold was cleaning his speedboat motor. Fumes that filled one end of the room were ignited by the spark from an electric drill used as a part of a pump he built to spray the gasoline. He was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad where his hands were dressed and placed in splints. He will be unable to work for several weeks.

Mrs. Emma Chinn Dorman, author of the song, "I Love You So," was notified the song will be sung by Wayne Van Dine on the "Song of Tomorrow" program on WCFI, March 17.

10 YEARS AGO: MARCH 18, 1971

Winners in the Americanism essay contest sponsored by the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary were Denise Golonka, Judy Vendl and Wendell Burris. Mrs. John L. Horan is Americanism chairman. The topic was "If Freedom Fails."

Congressman Robert McClory will be the speaker at the dedication of the Antioch Upper Grade School, 3 p.m. Sunday.

Dr. W.C. Petty of Antioch, who will retire in August after 40 years of service as Lake County superintendent of schools was honored at Teachers Institute meeting in Deerfield and Waukegan.

Wilbert V. Lahti and Thomas F. Weber, both of Antioch, have become new members of the Chicago Chapter of the National Association of Accountants.

There will be one section for two to seven year olds, and another section for eight to 13 year olds.

You are asked not to bring baskets as you will not be allowed to use them.

At 12:45 p.m., the Easter Bunny will come to town, parading around town, and at 1 p.m. sharp he will be at Williams Park to start the festivities.

Irv Carey to be '81's VIP

IRV CAREY

When told that he was Antioch's choice to be 1981's VIP, Irv Carey said, "I thought I'd be able to skip that through, or that maybe it was just another joke that Bill Brook was playing on me. He's played a few over the years."

Carey, after 53 years in the electrical business, still works at the shop on Main St. that he moved to in 1935, when his rent was $25 per month.

He says he works six and a half days a week, even coming in sometimes on Sundays.

He's also been the man behind the power of the Lake County Fair, electrical power, that is, since 1937.

Carey looks on his golf playing as his hobby, claiming a consistent score of between 110 and 120 while saying, "I do it for the exercise and I get more of it than the good golfers do with all that extra swinging and walking that goes on."

He met his wife, Georgianna, when they were both students at Wilmet High School, Wilmet, Wis.. She was a freshman and he a senior.

Georgianna went on to college to become a teacher and in 1927, when she was 23 and he 25 years of age, they were married.

The Carey's, who have no children of their own, say they have helped to "Raise everybody else's kids."

This partially in reference to the 40 or so boys that have been employed over the years at Carey Electric.

Carey, an alumnus, is a devoted Notre Dame football fan. So is Georgianna, since she went to the sister school, St. Marys.

Both get up to see as many games as possible during the football season.

Carey, who is reputed to be the "past president" of almost all of the local organizations, has been active on the board of the State Bank of Antioch, the Lions, the National Electrical Contractors Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Holy Name Society at St. Peter's Church, the Notre Dame Club and the Notre Dame 50 year Club, as well as many others.

Among the many offices that Carey has held in the services of the community of Antioch are being the past president of the Holy Name Society and a member of the school board of St. Peter's School for two terms.

Deadline for reservations for the VIP Dinner to be held at St. Peter's on March 28, is March 18.

Members of the committees that are in

Haley quotes record, cites responsiveness to people

(All the information in this article was obtained from the candidate in question as in the other previous articles on Ray Toft and Robert Wilton.)

by GLORIA DAVIS

Incumbent Mayor Mike Haley who heads the Citizens Action Party, is the last of the three mayoral candidates that the voters of Antioch can judge by past performance.

When Haley, who served as trustee under Robert Wilton's administration, came into office in 1977, the balance in the village bank account was $565,088, disbursements that year exclusive of water and sewer payments totaled $909,785.

As of January 31 of this year the balance in the village's account was $637,817 and total disbursements for the three fiscal quarters of 1980, from May 1 to Jan. 31, were $1,459,830.

Haley, who is a family man, local businessman, being co-owner of Haley Brothers Dry Cleaning, served on the Antioch Rescue Squad for 18 years.

When Haley defeated one of his present opponents, Ray Toft, in the 1977 election, he

Revenue funds, insurance considered by township

At the Antioch Township meeting, held on Thursday, March 12, the board held a discussion on the 19 requests that were received for some of the $53,000 the township has in revenue sharing funds to distribute to deserving and needy organizations in the township.

An amount in the area of $20,000 is expected to go to the Antioch Parks and Recreation Program so that residents that live outside the village, in the township, can make use of the program and its facilities.

Half-cab fare for senior citizens may be allocated in the amount of $3,500 and $15,000 is expected to go for a new township highway department truck.

The distribution of the remaining $14,500 will be decided and announced at the regular Antioch Township Board meeting on April 26.

During the discussion on those who applied to the township for assistance, Trustee Homer LaPlante said that he had had a feeling that many of the requests were in support of services that were duplicated.

Supervisor Jim Fields said, "We should keep these funds distributed locally, with many federal funds being cut, some of those being aided now won't be able to survive without help."

The board then went into a discussion on the possibility of helping those who cannot pay their utility bills by paying them and taking a lien on any property they own.

The lien would be payable if the property was to be sold.

The idea being to pay the bills so people won't lose their homes as long as they want to live in them.

The question of whether townships are allowed to do this is now being decided in court.

With Lake County denying the request of the township to join their insurance plan, the board is looking into four plans for its 11 employees.

Among those the board will consider will be two Blue Cross-Blue Shield plans handled by Fort Dearborn Life Ins. Co.

One has $10,000 life and an 80-20 coverage, and will save the township $687.57 compared to the premiums now being paid.

The other has the same life insurance coverage but also has 100 percent insurable coverage and is $400 less than present premiums.

The present annual township employee insurance premium is $2,121.38.

The cost of the one having 80-20 percent coverage plus $4,000 more in life insurance coverage is $1,423.81.

The policy with 100 percent coverage and $4,000 more in life insurance will cost $1,721.33, either could save the township $400 to $700 per year.

Circus planned by Chamber

The monthly meeting of the Retail Committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry was held on Friday, Feb. 6, at Weasel's Restaurant.

One of the first topics brought before the members of the retail community, that were assembled, was the $800 budget that is slated to finance an ad campaign promoting the Chamber's push on shopping locally and the advantages of doing so.

Chamber Secretary Dixie Sparks and Paul Pavelski reported on the negotiations taking place with the Franzen Bros. Circus that will come to town on Wednesday, June 10, sponsored by the Chamber.

Tentative performances, at 3 and 7 p.m. have been set.

Sites for the circus that are under discussion are Williams Park and the Antioch Community High School's football field.

The circus can seat 1,000 people per show and the Chamber will get part of the ticket price, this amount depending on the volume of the ticket sales.

Chairman Laddie Korecek and those present agreed to the setting of July 30, 31 and Aug. 1 for Maxwell St. Days.

The annual Art Fair, also Chamber sponsored, was set for July 12.

A long discussion on ways to enhance the success of Moonlight Madness, set for Aug. 20 was discussed.

Possibilities of a pet parade and Dutch auction sale were suggested with more details and ideas slated for the next meeting.

William Barr, chairman of the luncheon to be sponsored by the Chamber and the Rotary, where each of the six mayoral candidates has been invited to discuss the election issues, especially those chosen by the two clubs, asked for further questions to ask the candidates.

The luncheon has been slated at Harbor Ridge Country Club on Thursday, March 12, at noon.

Most of the candidates have accepted the two clubs' invitation and the information to be learned that day seems to be drawing increasing interest.

More use seen of Antioch Library

by BETTY LU WILLIAMS
Township Librarian

In doing our yearly report we found we had increased our materials available to our patrons by over 4,000 and had registered close to 1,000 new patrons.

Throughout the year we noticed an increase in patrons coming in to read the newspapers and magazines on a regular basis. More micro film from the National Archives for patrons working on their genealogy were ordered.

Various groups were in for tours of the library, some for information on the card catalog and use of reference material, others for story or film after their tour.

Additional shelving was added in adult and children areas. A micro-film reader-printer was added.

Having the telephone books of some of the major cities of the United States as well as some of the business directories, zip code directory and other business reference books have brought more businessmen in.

The pre-school story hour on Thursdays proved very successful.

The paper back and puzzle exchange program continued to grow.

The Multi-purpose room was used by various groups such as 4-H Group, census training, Mental Health Board, movies for children in The Village Park program, story and reading programs along with the Village Park program, Overeaters Anonymous and The Lake County Blood Pressure Clinic which is very well attended and has brought people into the library that have become regular patrons.

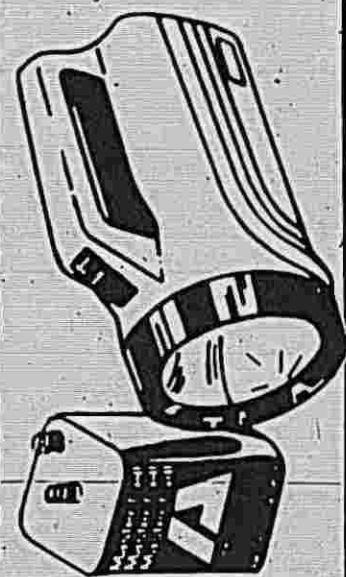

Near the end of the year we were able to order Video tapes for our patrons home use through our Northern Illinois Library System.

Have you seen "Curious George", a gift from Karen Schreiber, Mom and Dad, if you don't know who "Curious George" is just ask your children. The Children love to snuggle up to him to read or play. He is loved by all ages and so is Nibbles, another acquisition this last year. its amazing how the adults enjoy him too.

BEEN THERE BEFORE—Steve Wapon, right, whose football team has also had its glory days in state competition, enjoys action much more knowing someone else is in the hot seat at IHSA sectional.

Sequoits edge Rockford West 57 to 52

When the Antioch Sequoits edged by Rockford West 57-52 in the sectionals at Freeport, on Wednesday, March 11, Antioch's Coach Roger Andrews' satisfaction at winning one of the big ones, also had a sharper edge since his team did him proud against his alma mater, Rockford West.

Although a myriad of Antioch fans were there to cheer their team on, beating Rockford did not come easily to the Sequoits, with the boys in red trailing by three points as the half time buzzer saw the scoreboard read Rockford 24, Antioch 21.

It wasn't until near the end of the third quarter that Dee Maras tied the score for Antioch, 29-29.

The Sequoits lead the scoring for the rest of the game but a closely played fourth quarter, had Rockford's Dan Woods' three successful free throws narrowing the distance to a mere one point.

With 1:12 left before the final buzzer, Dean Haviland gave Antioch a needed two, giving them a broader, but still close, 50-47 lead.

The tense fourth quarter continued, with only a three point spread between the two teams, till the final seconds saw Bobo Gatti sink two free ones, making the final score 57-52.

The games two leading scorers were Maras, with 23 points for the Sequoits and Marcus Long who marked up 22 points for the Warriors.

Antioch's 19 turnovers, Rockford's well executed press, the bottling-up of John Ploss, who fouled out with 26 seconds left, almost gave Rockford a win but the 95 mile ride home was a joyous one for the victorious Sequoits and their fans.

Girl cagers advance

While the town's attention is zeroing in on the Sequoits' boy's basketball team, Antioch's girls have methodically advanced to gain the championship in the IHSA regional girl's basketball tournament.

The girls advanced to the finals by defeating Round Lake 48-35 behind 22 points from Tracy Manuel. Also advancing was Grant, who defeated Grayslake 65-43.

The Sequoits then captured the regional title with a narrow 43-41 win over Grant. The Sequoits girls will face host Libertyville at the Libertyville Sectional, Tuesday, March 17, at 6:30 p.m.

Against Grant, Manuel had 19 points and Chris Byrne added 11.

Coach Lorraine Dresser said the Sequoits will stick with a 2-3 zone against Libertyville.

Libertyville and Antioch match up well size-wise, she said. She attributed the Sequoits' success this year to a better team attitude.

"We have a better attitude this year. Everyone's more friendly and get along better," she admitted.

In order to advance, Antioch will have to continue to be on its game. "I told them we've gotten the good luck when we need it, but we still have to play our game," said Dresser.

She said the girls have shown in the past the ability to adapt to the 2-3 defense. "We need to cut down turnovers. That's been killing us," she added.

Frosh claim title

Antioch Community High School (ACHS) freshman basketball team won the Northwest Suburban Conference title and concluded an undefeated conference season with an 80-45 rout of Stevenson.

ACHS' overall record is now 18-2 and the young Sequoits extended their win streak to 16 games.

Stevenson's high scoring Patriots finished third in the league standings but were no match for the hot Sequoits. After a close first quarter, Antioch moved out to an 11 point lead at halftime behind the scoring of John Humphreys and Dan Berkiel.

Frank and John Mahar took over in the third quarter as the twins combined for 18 points in the period. Even the substitutes continued to score by putting 21 points on the board in the last period.

Stats for the game show the Sequoits shooting a torrid 67 percent from the field and 69 percent from the line. ACHS dominated the boards 35 to 15 and handed out a generous 23 assists.

Berkiel led in rebounds with eight and Humphreys and John Mahar each grabbed seven. Humphreys was credited with six assists. Balanced scoring had Humphreys and John Mahar with 17 points each and Berkiel and Frank Mahar with 16 each.

ACHS "B" team ended its season on a sour note with a 42-32 loss to the Patriots. The "B" team finishes the season with an 8-2 conference record and 10-3 overall. Rod Steiskal and Shawn Kelly were the only people able to score much as they had nine and six points respectively.

Carole explains Classes cater to family

by CAROLE RISKA

The Antioch Upper Grade School is taking a modern, practical approach to preparing students for what are the real facts of life for more and more of today's families, especially, the working women, wife and mother.

The junior high has the seventh and eighth grade boys and girls taking industrial arts and home economics. The industrial arts instructor and the home economics instructor are pleased with the results.

The girls are doing very well in shop. The feminine knack for manual dexterity and meticulousness is really coming to the forefront here.

THE BOYS are proving equally adept at cooking, sewing and mastering the home arts.

There has been no grumbling about "womens work" from the boys or "its too dirty" from the girls.

The kids are taking the program naturally.

HOPEFULLY the girls and boys will realize that there are career options for them that their mothers and fathers did not have the opportunities for, and also males and females sharing the responsibility for making a home is the modern attitude to take.

The Countryside

Association For The Handicapped, a non-profit organization, has for a long time provided opportunities and programs for the handicapped.

They are now offering a new service, a respite program for families with severely disabled children.

This is an in-home program that is designed to help families to cope with the problems that can be caused by mental retardation cerebral palsy, autism and other disabilities that do not necessarily fit into a specific category.

THE WORD respite means a time of relief and that is the aim of this program, to give the families of these children and the children themselves a time of relief, support and a link to community services.

To qualify for this program the disability has to have occurred before the age of 22 and has to be related to a mental and physical or both types of impairment.

The fee that is charged is determined on a sliding scale, based on income, but the maximum charge, regardless of earnings is $3.30 per day.

The programs receive funds from the Illinois Dept. of Mental Health and the Illinois Dept. of Rehabilitation.

Other funds are received through donations, fees, taxes and grants from the federal government.

FOR MORE information on any of the services offered call Countryside Association For The Handicapped at 438-8855.

One of the most effective consumer action groups is the Illinois Public Action Council (IPAC).

They are currently leading a fight to stop utility rate increases and to have elected officials rather than appointees on the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC).

The ICC has the final say on utility increases.

IPAC stresses efficiency and conservation rather than rate increases.

IPAC has been in the Antioch area with their petitions.

This consumer action group is known across the country for their effectiveness on the behalf of Illinois citizens.

WATCH TEMPERATURES

Senator Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) called on the owners of public buildings to keep their thermostats at 65 degrees in the winter and 78 degrees in the summer, notwithstanding President Reagan's termination of the Emergency Building Temperature Restrictions.

Antioch educators go to 127th NEA meeting

Sue Gerasch, chairperson Region Five and Tom Herziger, both of Antioch Community High School Education Association, attended the 127th Annual Representative Assembly of the Illinois Education Association-NEA in Chicago.

As two of some 550 teacher-delegates, Gerasch and Herziger helped adopt a state association budget, a legislative platform, new resolutions and bylaws and a new set of state-level officers to help the IEA-NEA to meet the challenges of public education in 1981.

Organized teachers and their unions face tightened funding and support in the coming year, along with the continued threat of teacher and program cutbacks in many school districts.

And this year, they'll be attempting to work with a General Assembly that is one third smaller and somewhat more conservative than previous state legislatures.

Efforts and programs of the IEA-NEA will continue to follow the theme, "Education-let it begin with me," established earlier in the year.

The theme and IEA-NEA efforts will focus on the "me" which includes both teachers and parents working as partners to provide adequate education for Illinois children in the public schools.

State association

President Mel Smith indicated that the IEA-NEA would seek passage of measures benefiting children and teachers within the framework of more stringent economic attitudes and guidelines currently prevailing.

Herziger reported that the following slate of new officers was elected to guide the association for the coming school year: Reg Weaver, president; Lee Betterman, vice president; Jim Nagle, secretary-treasurer.

Gerasch reported that the board of directors hired John Ryor, past president of the National Education Association, as executive secretary replacing Wm. Stoltz.

Haley responsive

walked into a position that paid $2,000.

Under his administration, the village board passed an ordinance raising the salary of the mayor of Antioch to $4,000 as of the April 1981 election.

But a few weeks ago, amidst much controversy, the same board passed an ordinance raising that salary to $11,000.

With the fact that the mayor is also the liquor commissioner, at an annual salary of $1,000 and also has a $200 a month expense account, the ante for Antioch's next top honcho has been upped to $14,400.

The village tax rate when Haley came into office was .856, in 1980 it was 1.151. At the fiscal year, ending in 1977, the village received $201,385 from taxes based on an assessed valuation of $23,526,313.

In 1980 the village received $362,368 based on an assessed valuation of $31,482,881.

Haley claims to have made effective use of the taxpayer's money during the last four years and reels off accomplishments that include: spending $29,000 for the repair and maintenance of sidewalks; $24,000 for equipping 911; $151,000 for capitol improvements to the water system; the purchase of the property from the Methodist Church so that Depot St. can eventually be extended westward and supply a much needed east-west artery; $340,000 for the complete reconstruction of Orchard St. and Hillside Ave; $550,000 on Main Street's reconstruction.

All the latter items were in an attempt to solve some of the village's traffic problems.

The Haley administration has made inroads in the long sought for senior citizen housing having opened the new Senior Center, and with the project located near Williams Park having already received approval from the Agency for Housing and Urban Development. Low income families and handicapped are slated for first choice in the 90 unit project and the remaining units to go to seniors.

The present mayor also feels that the addition of more police manpower and that of a new squad car to the police department, during the last four years, has greatly increased the village's police protection.

What does Haley see in Antioch's future, if he is still in office as of April 8?

His administration having annexed several parcels including those of Al Pederson and Joe Patrovsky, he talks about industrial development and he claims one of the first projects on the docket is the physical development of the property lately annexed to the village belonging to Walter Koziol.

He advocates cooperating with the Chamber of Commerce and Industry in wooing light industry to those six available industrial sights.

He has been working on the further improvement and expansion of the sewer system with a capacity to handle the projected population of the village in the year 2005 in mind.

Whether Antioch will do this on their own or join the county-wide sewer system is "a matter of which will cost the Antioch taxpayer less," says Haley.

In answer to those who argue with the part of his platform that calls for using state and federal funding to the village's advantage, by saying most of those funds will not be available, Haley says that fund availability will come in the form of block grant monies.

He credits his position as vice chairman of the Lake County Development Commission as being instrumental in the village receiving a $53,300 block grant to continue the flood control and storm water management program in Oakwood Knolls.

As far as the last promise on the CAP Party's platform, to improve parking in the central business district, Haley says, "Experts, that did a study on the problem, told us that Antioch had more than enough parking to accommodate customers of the main business section."

About the on-street parking he says, "They told us first to fix the streets, so we did, now we will address the on street parking problem."

While remaining non-committal on the question of village board executive meetings being held to discuss the purchase of property, Haley doesn't deny that the purchase of additional land for parking on the east side of Main St. might be in the offing.

The present administration claims to have a track record of listening to the people, citing the dropping of the use of Industrial Revenue Bonds to bring in a commercial complex and also recinding the ordinance creating a full-time mayoral position at an annual salary of $28,000, after hosting several meetings crowded with residents objecting to these moves.

ACHS in math tourney

On Feb. 26, nine area high schools competed in the second annual Antioch-Warren Invitational Math Competition.

The event was held at Warren High School in the evening.

Elmer Stone, math department chairman at Warren High School, Dr. Callan, principal at Warren High School, and Jay Bratton of Antioch Community High School presented the first and second place team members with ribbons and the over-all first place trophy went to Stevenson.

Antioch, Lake Zurich, Libertyville, North Chicago, Round Lake, Stevenson, Warren, Wauconda and Waukegan West sent teams to the competition.

There were four written tests, algebra I, geometry, algebra II, and advanced topics.

Each test consisted of 20 difficult problems and the students had 50 minutes for the test.

No calculators or tables were permitted and no partial credit was given. The schools score was the sum of its two highest individuals in each subject area.

There were also two relay events. In the relay four students sit in a row, one behind the other. The first student works his/her problem and passes only the answer, the next student uses this answer in his problem.

Each of the four team members have different problems to work.

The students seemed to greatly enjoy the competition and the challenge. It is beneficial to give recognition to the students who excel in academics.

Antioch took second place in algebra II, written.

Henry Apostol and Maureen McDevitt comprised the team.

ACHS also took a second in the Junior Varsity Relay

Nancy Harland, ACHS senior, is one of the 500 semi-finalists, chosen out of 13,400 high school students, vieing for 140 scholarships to be presented by the Jostens Foundation, which is committed to developing quality education for today's young people.

Arrest burglar

According to Lt. Tom Fisher, of the Antioch Police Dept., Ed Rehfeld, 18, Lake Villa, was arrested by the Antioch police for burglary on Thursday, March 5.

Rehfeld was allegedly in the process of breaking into a home on Park Ave., Antioch, when the owner returned home at 9:30 p.m., on Thursday, March 5. She saw a man run from her home, jump into a car and drive away.

The alert woman got the license plate of the car, reported the whole incident to the police and Lt. Fisher and Officer Bert Metz, after tracing the owner of the car through the reported license number, arrested Rehfeld in his home in Lake Villa.

Rehfeld was charged in Lake County Court and released on a $5,000 personal recognizance bond. A hearing on the charges is set for Monday, March 16, at 1:30 p.m.

AARP becomes Irish for one day March 10

Dolly Spiering, president of the Antioch Chapter 387 of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) welcomed the members to their St. Patrick's Party held on March 10 at the Antioch Area Senior Center, 817 Holbek Dr.

The tables were decorated beautifully with top hat center pieces. (A small green cake plate with shamrocks on it with the center cut out, and a green paper cup inserted in the hole up-side down. A black band with a silver buckle completed the hat.) The plates were filled with buttermint candies. Green top hats were made for placemats. A shamrock with a white pipe glued on it was the members name tag. White napkins were decorated with shamrocks. The ladies who made these lovely items were Arline Brumbaugh, Bernice Weiss, Erma Broadbent and Blanche Babik.

A tasty lunch of corned beef and cabbage, boiled potatoes, carrots, string beans with mushrooms, a roll, cupcake and beverage, completed the catered meal. Emily Novotny played the piano for the sing-a-long of Irish songs.

Esther Aiani urged the members to attend the AARP National Issue Forum to be held in Milwaukee April 21-23. Arrangements are being made to have a bus take a group there for one day.

Mrs. Aiani said there is an urgent need for volunteers at the Veterans Administration Hospital in North Chicago, formerly Downey Veterans Hospital. Anyone interested in volunteering their services may call her at 395-5354.

Ella Cerny, an 85 year old member, and a volunteer at the VA Hospital and Hines Hospital for more than 30 years was recognized for her services. She represents the American War Mothers at Hines. She knits slippers, socks and lap robes for the patients, who are most grateful. She has a past national officer pin, past state president of Illinois pin, American war mother pin, USO pin, American war mother — hospital volunteer pin, civil defense pin, 1930 veterans administration pin and a Veteran Administration Hospital, Hines, button. She is a great woman worthy of the honors bestowed upon her.

Frances Tomasik, registration chairman, announced that 143 members were at the meeting, with no new members.

Several expressed their feelings about how crowded and noisy the center is. There is concern of how they would get out if there would be a fire there. A double door at the east entrance and a small door to the west would hardly get them out safely in an emergency, as several members walk slowly due to health reasons. If they fell, others would also fall. Several members said they were leaving the club because it is very difficult to even hear the person talk sitting across the table from them. The acoustics are very bad.

John Wenclawski has had the position of Legislation chairman tossed back in his lap, since Lorraine Grant resigned the chairmanship. He spoke of the poverty level of senior citizens. Members were asked to express their feelings to their Congressman and Senators.

Glen Peterson and John Babik sold tickets for a bus trip to the West Bend factories and Smith's Shanty for lunch on Tuesday, March 31.

All tickets were sold. They will leave from the water tower near McDonalds at 7 a.m.

Arrangements are being made to attend the Spring and Easter Show at the Garfield Park Conservatory some time between April 11 and April 26. Then lunch in China Town. If you would like to go with, make sure your dues are paid and you attend the next meeting. Bus tickets go fast.

The Antioch Chapter of AARP is 16 years old this month. Charter members, Joe and Victoria Anet-sberger and Clara Johnson were recognized.

Mrs. Spiering invited the members to attend the April 17 meeting of the Bi-State Council at the Windjammer Restaurant.

Loretta Schiffman sold tickets for the club's fund-raising project. $50 was made for the club, with ten members each receiving $5 cash.

Ann Hoffman reported that Irene Daniels, Ann Donahue, Olga Krueger and Victoria Streicher were hospital patients. Their fellow members wish them a speedy recovery.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 24 at the Antioch Area Senior Center. Doors open at 9:30 a.m.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Be sure and tune into Annie Mae next week when she just might take a straw poll from the residents of Antioch and come up with some kind of predictions for April 7th's election.

No doubt about it, Sequoit Coach Roger Andrews would be a likely winner in Antioch's already crowded mayoral race, if he were a write in candidate.

Congratulations to the Antioch Police Dept. and especially Officer Ron Roth, (hope the name was spelled right this time) who after somewhat of a moratorium on parking meter checks, are right back on the ball with their little red envelopes.

But Officer Roth, sports cars belonging to cute young things and vans that are overparked are just as culpable as klunkers belonging to old ladies.

Gussie Stump, formerly Mrs. Earl Pitman, writes from Florida to tell me that she and her husband visited Gertie Eddy at the Dania Nursing Home.

They found her in good health but "ever so lonely."

Scholarly congrats to Cindy and Frank Skrzynecki who were just awarded mass communications scholarships by St. Cloud University in Minnesota.

Carol Weninger called to tell me that the mosquitoto eating Purl Martins are due to arrive in our area during the first two weeks in April.

They are expected to stay till about August 19. These birds are not only melodious and entertaining to watch, but each of them eats over 2,000 mosquitoes daily.

She even gave me tips to insure the martins nesting in my yard.

Make sure bird houses are clean, roofes white to reflect the heat, with six by six by six compartments whose entrance holes measure two and one fourth inches.

Bird houses should be kept in the open, away from heavy foliage and locaton near water is especailly desirable.

Heavens knows with all the mosquito problems these past few years, these birds might be better than those new fangled electric mosquito zappers.

It sure would be nice to be able to spend time in the yard again in nice weather.

Good news for any local businesses who are looking for a way to hipe their sales.

A new law has just been mandated for the defense department to purchase its needs from companies in high unemployment areas.

And since Illinois is one of the highest in the country, a word to your congressman might bring a little business your way.

With all the election signs scattered around town, my nomination for the most unusual one of the week, was Mayor Haley's car, seen over the weekend with names of all his opponents written in the dust on it. Bet that vehicle was a fast guest at the nearest car wash.

License plates expire

Passenger car owners with license plate registrations expiring in March have until midnight Tuesday, March 31, to display brown 1982 stickers in the upper right corners of their rear plates.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar said approximately 570,000 renewal applications have been mailed to registered owners who currently display green 1981 stickers expiring in March.

Applications made by mail should be in the secretary's office no later than Friday, March 13, to guarantee delivery by the March 31 deadline.

Stickers also may be purchased over-the-counter at the Secretary of State's Springfield and Chicago facilities or many financial institutions participating in the license renewal program.

Effective Wednesday, April 1, anyone driving a car with an expired green, March 1981, sticker will be subject to a fine for improper registration.

A woman's place

When I think about it 'Is winding down so bad?'

by GLORIA DAVIS

After years of spending and overspending, from the United States government on down to John Q. Public and his Master Charge Card, everyone is suddenly making a complete about-face.

Our politicians, instead of promising a chicken in every pot are now telling us that they will try and help us keep the pot.

Reagan has already started cutting many of the public aid programs and nobody seems to disagree with the idea of cutting government spending in principal, but of course they think their program is the "important one" and it's the other guy that should be cut.

The one thing that they don't seem to realize is that to somebody, they are "the other guy."

Let's hope that all these efforts to wind the economy back are successful since it's not only a good idea but an economic must.

The only trouble is, if one is a student of history and the old "history repeats itself" biword, no country has ever been able to wind its economy down.

Shades of the bursting buttons of a 1960's Green Bay Packer fan, could it be possible that the average American citizen will never again experience the boom days of the '60's and '70's?

Maybe the days when an average working person is able to fly to Hawaii or Europe on a vacation will be, from here on in, far and few between.

Three or more car families, where mom and pop subsidize their 16 year old's car, may not be seen as often as they are now.

Will $50 designer jeans still be filling the local closets?

The present poverty level in the United States, for a family with three children, is one of a $13,000 annual income.

With today's high prices, my first reaction was that a family of that size would find it impossible to exist on that kind of money.

Then I did a little thinking and a lot of remembering.

Maybe this "poverty stricken family" will have to live in a four room apartment like they did back in the '40's and '50's.

One where the living room is the family room, rumpus room, game room and a bedroom all in one, since mom and dad might be sleeping on a hideabed that is used as a couch in the day time.

The bedroom would be filled with as many bunk beds as needed by the majority ruling sex of the children and every other available space in the room will be filled with as many dressers as space will allow.

The dining room will be used for every meal, from Saturday night suppers to Christmas dinner, and the same table will serve as a desk for homework, a cutting table for the sewers in the family, much more of that being done, and a workbench for all the do it your selfers, a hobby that might also become a necessity.

Everyone will have one "Sunday outfit," and mom and dad might only be able to go out to dinner once in awhile.

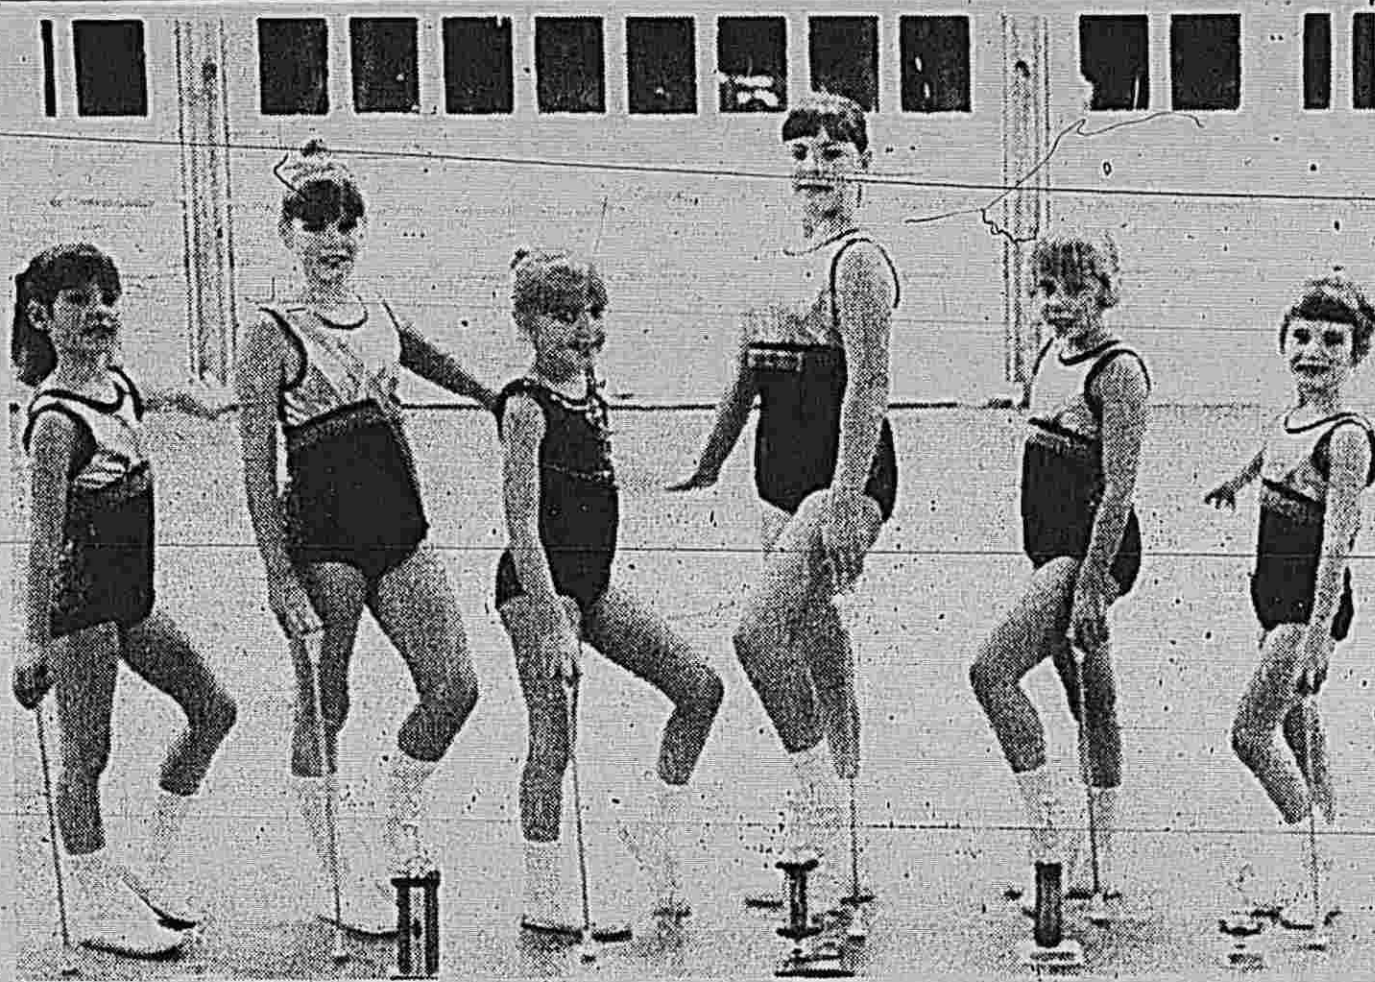

This "poor" family will have to make do with one car, purchased from Sam the friendly used car man, and, the worst of all, the children may have to make do on a small spending allowance.

One of the most earth shaking deprivations may be that the refrigerator may not be stocked with coke and ice cream and stray bags of potato chips and popcorn might not be found laying in the cupboards, which now contain the rudiments necessary for an inexpensive but healthy diet.

This may be the 1981 look on poverty row, but it bears a strong resemblance to Mr. Average Joe and family back in the "olden days" of the '30's, '40's and '50's, then known as the family with the best average standard of living in the world.

Be realistic, look in the ghettos of our cities, the back woods of West Virginia, the jungles of the Philippines and most other foreign countries, if you really want to see the face of poverty above a starvation swollen stomach and a rag clothed body, that is sheltered by a building that couldn't even qualify on the condemned lists of the average American community!

If all this happens would it really be so terrible? Maybe with all the excess money and the luxuries it buys, gotten out of the way, the average American family might get to know one another again.

PM&L's 'Three of a Kind' to open Saturday, March 28

PM&L's "Three of a Kind" will open Saturday night, March 28, at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch.

Later performances are scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights, April 3, 4, 10, and 11. Also, there will be a matinee on Sunday afternoon, April 5.

The Sunday afternoon show, an innovation of PM&L's current Season 20, has become a popular new feature of the theater schedule. The many playgoers who do not find it possible or convenient to go to the theater on Friday and Saturday nights have appreciated especially the matinee presentation.

Directed by Don Beveroth of Paddock Lake, "Three of a Kind" is a combination of three one-act plays, each dealing, in one way or another, with problems of love.

Beveroth, a veteran PM&L director, is especially fond of this format, and many area theatergoers will remember his "Trio," which was presented by PM&L in 1974.

The talented cast of "Three of a Kind" includes Mickey Mandel of Fox Lake, Lou Jones, Round Lake, and Ann Marie Cina, McHenry, in "Lady of Larkspur Lotion," Vickie Tolash, Libertyville, Larrie Bersie, Antioch, Bruce Stamm, Round Lake Beach, and Priscilla Gwinn, Waukegan, in "Lovers and Other Strangers;" and Don Beveroth, Ann Marie Cina, Shirley Jensen, Antioch and Priscilla Gwinn, in "Lovers." Many of these stage veterans are well-known to Antioch audiences.

For an edifying evening, or afternoon, on the subject of love, you should be sure to see "Three of a Kind."

Its curtain rises at 8:30 p.m. for the evening performances and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

Remember to call 395-3055 to make your reservations. Service at this PM&L number has recently been strengthened and put on a professional basis, enabling your seating requests to be acted upon promptly. Nevertheless you should make a special point to be at the PM&L box office by 8:15 p.m. on the night, or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon, you plan to see these delightful and sensitive plays.

Cotillion planned

Members of the Antioch Mental Health Association met at the Antioch Library March 2.

The meeting was conducted by Annette Lubkeman, president. The main topic of discussion was the Cotillion which will be held at the Abbey on Lake Geneva May 30, 1981.

The committee for the Cotillion will be Pat Lorenz as dance co-ordinator, Dorothy Tiester and Lorraine Santi as financial co-ordinators, Anne St. Pierre and Kay Costoff will serve as ticket chairmen.

Lou Vos, Thelma Anderson and Frances La Planche will handle donations and Phyllis Bucar will take care of publicity.

Thelma Anderson announced that music will be provided by the Manhattan Skyline.

As always the proceeds from the Cotillion and from the Thrift Shop at 921 Main Street will go to help the mentally handicapped children and young adults in Lake County.

THESE GUYS CAN MAKE YOU LOOK LIKE A GENIUS.

There are builders and there are builders. The builders in this ad are the crème de la crème. They're the ones who can make you look like the smartest guy on the block because they can put you in the smartest house on the block. The energy-smart house.

The energy-smart house has double-glazed windows. The layer of air trapped between them will help you keep comfortable when cold winds blow or sidewalks sizzle.

The ceilings and walls are packed with insulation to help you stay warm when you should be warm and cool when you should be cool.

There's caulking and weather-stripping around every door and window so you won't waste money heating and cooling the great outdoors. Instead of an air conditioner and furnace, there's an electric heat pump. In summer, it pulls heat from the warm air inside and forces it outside to keep you cool.

In winter, it reverses itself, drawing residual heat from the cold air outside and pumping it inside to keep you warm. Happy too, because all winter long this amazing little machine actually provides at least fifty percent more energy than it uses. And nobody has to tell you what that means.

All in all, a house that's energy-smart costs less to operate than one that's not so smart. And since the price of energy isn't going down for any of us, it'll be worth that much more should you ever decide to move on.

If you're in the market for a new home, talk to one of the energy-smart builders. It could be the most smart thing you ever did.
